NARRATIVE:

Varela, a documented member of the Whittier Varrio Locos street gang has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 18. His convictions include numerous vandalism charges, multiple vehicle theft charges, battery, burglary, possession of a dagger, carrying a loaded firearm, assault with a deadly weapon, grand theft, burglary, violation of parole, participation in a criminal street gang, felon in possession of a firearm, and exhibiting a deadly weapon. Varela, has served multiple state prison terms the longest a four (4) year term for vandalism. Varela, was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on July 5th, 2012. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in November 2013 after Varela absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Varela qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for felon in possession of a firearm falls under the guidelines for PRCS under the California penal code. His prior criminal history, status as a gang member and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
